Following the work on the Dais, we are going to to use the piano to accompany the singing at Mass. The Organ tuner is coming on 25th and we would rather wait until we know that it is safe to use the organ, than cause any damage from dust or other particles, even though it was covered during the works.

Mass for Walsingham, with Healing Ministries on Saturday at 10.00 a.m. Refreshments afterwards will be provided in the hall by the Saturday Cuppa.

Thank you for your support at Christmas Fayre. The total raised is £812. The Churchwardens will happily receive any further donations.

If you are in the monthly Draw and haven't paid your quarterly or annual subscription now is the time to do so. New members are always welcome. Half the draw money is given to the prize winner the other half goes to Church funds. Next draw Saturday 5th December.

The work on the Dais is now complete apart from the carpet. The weekday Masses will return to the usual time of 9.30 a.m. Sometimes the days will vary according to the Church calendar. When the PCC are meeting (26th November) the Thursday Mass will be at 7.00 p.m.

Theme for Today's Mass:

Using our talents

Entrance Antiphon Jer 29: 11, 12, 14

The Lord said: I think thoughts of peace and not of affliction. You will call upon me, and I will answer you, and I will lead back your captives from every place.

Collect

Grant us, we pray, O Lord our God, the constant gladness
of being devoted to you,
for it is full and lasting happiness
to serve with constancy
the author of all that is good.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First reading Prov 31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31

'She works with willing hands.'

A reading from the Book of Proverbs

An excellent wife who can find? She is far more precious than jewels. The heart of her husband trusts in her, and he will have no lack of gain. She does him good, and not harm, all the days of her life. She seeks wool and flax, and works with willing hands. She puts her hands to the distaff, and her hands hold the spindle. She opens her hand to the poor and reaches out her hands to the needy. Charm is deceitful, and beauty is vain, but a woman who fears the Lord is to be praised. Give her of the fruit of her hands, and let her works praise her in the gates.

Responsorial Psalm Psalter page 92

Ps 128(127):1-2. 3. 4-5. ℟1a

℟ Blessed are all who fear the Lord.

Blessed are all who fear the Lord,
and walk in his ways!
By the labour of your hands you shall eat.
You will be bless-ed and prosper. **℟

Your wife like a fruit-ful vine
in the heart of your house;
your children like shoots of the olive a-round your table. **℟

Indeed thus shall be blessed the husband who fears the Lord.
May the Lord bless you from Sion.
May you see Jerusalem prosper /
all the days of your life! **℟

Second reading 1 Thessalonians 5:1-6

'Do not let the day of the Lord surprise you like a thief.'

A reading from the First Letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians

Concerning the times and the seasons, brothers and sisters, you have no need to have anything written to you. For you yourselves are fully aware that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. While people are saying, 'There is peace and security', then sudden destruction will come upon them as labour pains come upon a pregnant woman, and they will not escape. But you are not in darkness, brothers and sisters, for that day to surprise you like a thief. For you are all children of light, children of the day. We are not of the night or of the darkness. So then let us not sleep, as others do, but let us keep awake and be sober.

Acclamation before the Gospel Jn 15:4a, 5b

Alleluia, alleluia. alleluia.
Alleluia, alleluia. alleluia.
Abide in me, and I in you, says the Lord.
Whoever abides in me bears much fruit.
Alleluia, alleluia. alleluia.

Gospel Matthew 25:14-30

'You have been faithful over a little, enter into the joy of your master.'

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

At that time: Jesus told his disciples this parable, 'The kingdom of heaven will be like a man going on a journey, who called his servants and entrusted to them his property. To one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one, to each according to his ability. Then he went away. He who had received the five talents went at once and traded with them, and he made five talents more. So also he who had the two talents made two talents more. But he who had received the one talent went and dug in the ground and hid his master's money. 'Now after a long time the master of those servants came and settled accounts with them. And he who had received the five talents came forward, bringing five talents more, saying, "Master, you delivered to me five talents; here, I have made five talents more." His master said to him, "Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a little; I will set you over much. Enter into the joy of your master." And he also who had the two talents came forward, saying, "Master, you delivered to me two talents; here, I have made two talents more." His master said to him, "Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a little; I will set you over much. Enter into the joy of your master." He also who had received the one talent came forward, saying, "Master, I knew you to be a hard man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you scattered no seed, so I was afraid, and I went and hid your talent in the ground. Here, you have what is yours." But his master answered him, "You wicked and slothful servant! You knew that I reap where I have not sown and gather where I scattered no seed? Then you ought to have invested my money with the bankers, and at my coming I should have received what was my own with interest. So take the talent from him and give it to him who has the ten talents. For to everyone who has will more be given, and he will have an abundance. But from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away. And cast the worthless servant into the outer darkness. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth." '

Prayer over the Offerings

Grant, O Lord, we pray, that what we offer
in the sight of your majesty may obtain for us
the grace of being devoted to you and gain us the prize
of everlasting happiness.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Communion Antiphon Ps 72: 28

To be near God is my happiness, to place my hope in God the Lord.

or: Mk 11: 23-24

Amen, I say to you,
whatever you ask in prayer,
believe that you will receive,
and it shall be given to you, says the Lord.

Prayer after Communion

We have partaken of the gifts of this sacred mystery, humbly imploring, O Lord,
that what your Son commanded us to do in memory of him
may bring us growth in charity.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.
