Theme for Today's Mass:*Sour grapesEntrance Antiphon Cf. Est 4: 17

Within your will, O Lord, all things are established, and there is none that can resist your will. For you have made all things, the heaven and the earth, and all that is held within the circle of heaven; you are the Lord of all.

Collect

Almighty ever-living God, who in the abundance of your kindness surpass the merits and the desires of those who entreat you, pour out your mercy upon us to pardon what conscience dreads and to give what prayer does not dare to ask. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First reading Isaiah 5:1-7
'The vineyard of the Lord of hosts is the house of Israel.'

A reading from the Prophet Isaiah

Let me sing for my beloved my love song concerning his vineyard: My beloved had a vineyard on a very fertile hill. He dug it and cleared it of stones, and planted it with choice vines; he built a watchtower in the midst of it, and hewed out a wine vat in it; and he looked for it to yield grapes, but it yielded wild grapes. And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah, judge between me and my vineyard. What more was there to do for my vineyard, that I have not done in it? When I looked for it to yield grapes, why did it yield wild grapes? And now I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard. I will remove its hedge, and it shall be devoured; I will break down its wall, and it shall be trampled down. I will make it a waste; it shall not be pruned or hoed, and briars and thorns shall grow up; I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it. For the vineyard of the Lord of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah are his pleasant planting; and he looked for justice, but behold, bloodshed; for righteousness, but behold, an outcry!

Responsorial Psalm Psalter page 84
Ps 80:9, 12, 13-14, 15-16, 19-20. R Isa 5:7aR The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel.

You brought a vine out of Egypt; you drove out the na-tions and planted it. It stretched out its branches to the sea; to the River it stretched out its shoots. R

Then why have you broken down its walls? It is plucked by all who pass by the way. It is ravaged by the boar of the forest, devoured by the beasts of the field. R

God of hosts, turn again, we implore; look down from hea-ven and see. Visit this vine and protect it, the stock your right hand has planted, / the son you have claimed for your-self. R

And we shall never forsake you again; give us life that we may call on your name. Bring us back, O Lord God of hosts; let your face shine forth, and we shall be saved. R

Second reading Philippians 4:6-9
'Practise these things, and the God of peace will be with you.'

A reading from the Letter of St Paul to the Philippians

Brothers and Sisters: Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is honourable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise: think about these things. What you have learned and received and heard and seen in me — practise these things, and the God of peace will be with you.

Acclamation before the Gospel Cf. Jn 15:16

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

I chose you out of the world, says the Lord, that you should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should a-bide.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

Gospel Matthew 21:33-43
'He will let out the vineyard to other tenants.'

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

At that time: Jesus said to the chief priests and the elders of the people, 'Hear another parable. There was a master of a house who planted a vineyard and put a fence round it and dug a wine press in it and built a tower and leased it to tenants, and went into another country. When the season for fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the tenants to get his fruit. And the tenants took his servants and beat one, killed another, and stoned another. Again he sent other servants, more than at first. And they did the same to them.

Finally he sent his son to them, saying, "They will respect my son." But when the tenants saw the son, they said to themselves, "This is the heir. Come, let us kill him and have his inheritance." And they took him and threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. When therefore the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?" They said to him, 'He will put those wretches to a miserable death and let out the vineyard to other tenants who will give him the fruits in their seasons.' Jesus said to them, 'Have you never read in the Scriptures: "The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone; this was the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes"?' Therefore I tell you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people producing its fruits.'

Prayer over the Offerings

Accept, O Lord, we pray, the sacrifices instituted by your commands and, through the sacred mysteries, which we celebrate with dutiful service, graciously complete the sanctifying work by which you are pleased to redeem us. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Communion Antiphon Lam 3: 25

The Lord is good to those who hope in him, to the soul that seeks him.

or: Cf. 1 Cor 10: 17

Though many, we are one bread, one body, for we all partake of the one Bread and one Chalice.

Prayer after Communion

Grant us, almighty God, that we may be refreshed and nourished by the Sacrament which we have received, so as to be transformed into what we consume. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

When 4th October falls on a weekday

*St Francis of Assisi is kept,
this Collect is used at Mass*

O God, by whose gift Saint Francis was conformed to Christ in poverty and humility, grant that, by walking in Francis' footsteps, we may follow your Son, and, through joyful charity, come to be united with you. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
